ORDINANCE GRANTING COVID-19 RELIEF TO BUSINESS OWNERS AT THE NARVACAN PUBLIC MARKET AND NARVACAN MALL IN THE PAYMENT OF STALL RENTALS FOR THE PERIOD JUNE-OCTOBER 2020

WHEREAS, the Covid-19 pandemic, which is a public health emergency, has forced the national and local government units to impose measures to contain the health crisis;

WHEREAS, this includes the implementation of Community Quarantine as a measure to combat the further spread of the Covid-19 virus;

WHEREAS, the Community Quarantine drastically affects the operations and financial capability of businesses and there is a need to soften the blow of loss of income especially to low-income earners;

WHEREAS, Section 192 of Republic Act 7160 or the Local Government Code provides that "local government units may, through ordinances duly approved, grant tax exemptions, incentives or reliefs under such term and conditions as they may deem necessary";
